Description

Reduced $400K from original price! See this award-winning BHI icon an oceanfront Harbour Village tower with panoramic seascapes and great views of Old Baldy and the Oak Island Lighthouse- was designed by architect Chuck Dietsche and has been featured on the cover of Beach Homes and Fine Home Building 2004, in Metropolitan Home, and on The Travel Channel. This is a reverse-floor plan, abutting Beach Access #2 and across from the marina. It offers three floors of light-filled living space. Each floor features its own deck. The crofter, designed by Dan Costa and built by Chris Lokey in 2010 boasts an additional bedroom and bath. Note: the main house sustained some damage from Hurricane Florence. It is being sold "as is". The original builder has provided a quote for a complete remodel.
